The first system of the musical score is for the first two lines of the song. It features a voice line and a piano accompaniment. The tempo is marked 'Andantino' and the dynamics are 'p' (piano). The key signature has three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat) and the time signature is 6/8. The voice line begins with a rest, followed by the lyrics 'Thy lips say, "I love thee, be -'. The piano accompaniment consists of a complex, dissonant chordal texture in the right hand and a more melodic line in the left hand.

Andante moderato

Piano

The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand begins with a series of chords and moving lines, while the left hand provides a steady accompaniment. Dynamics include p, cresc., and f. There are two asterisks marking specific measures in the left hand.

The first system shows the vocal line starting with the lyrics "Seat-ed one day at the". The piano accompaniment features a dim. dynamic and a p dynamic. There are two asterisks marking measures in the piano part.

The second system continues the vocal line with lyrics "or-gan, I was wear-y and ill at ease, And my fin-gers wan-der'd i - dly". The piano accompaniment includes two asterisks marking measures.

The third system continues the vocal line with lyrics "O - ver the nois - y keys; I know not what I was play-ing, Or". The piano accompaniment includes a cresc. dynamic and two asterisks marking measures.

Love's Old, Sweet Song

Words by
G. Clifton Bingham

J. L. Molloy

Andante con moto

PIANO

The piano introduction is in 3/4 time with a key signature of one flat (Bb). It consists of two staves. The right hand features a melodic line with a fermata over the final note, while the left hand provides a harmonic accompaniment. The tempo markings 'rit.' and 'a tempo.' are placed above the right-hand staff.

La La La La

The piano accompaniment for the first vocal line continues the harmonic structure established in the introduction, with the right hand playing chords and the left hand providing a steady bass line.

Once in the dear dead days beyond re-call, When on the world the mists be-gan to fall,

The first verse of the song. The vocal line is written on a single staff in 4/4 time. The piano accompaniment consists of two staves, with the right hand playing chords and the left hand playing a simple bass line.

Out of the dreams that rose in hap-py throng, Low to our hearts Love sung an old sweet song;

The second verse of the song. The vocal line continues on a single staff. The piano accompaniment continues with two staves, maintaining the harmonic and rhythmic accompaniment.

And in the dusk where fell the fire-light gleam, Soft-ly it wove it-self in - to our dream.

Poco adagio

Piano

The first system of musical notation shows the piano introduction. It consists of a treble clef staff with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature (C). The melody begins with a half note G4, followed by quarter notes A4, B4, and C5. The bass clef staff provides accompaniment with chords and single notes.

The second system of musical notation continues the piano accompaniment. The treble clef staff features a melodic line with eighth and quarter notes, while the bass clef staff continues with a steady accompaniment pattern.

The third system contains the vocal melody and piano accompaniment with lyrics. The treble clef staff has a key signature of one sharp and a common time signature. The lyrics are:

1. The sun shines bright in the old Ken-tuck-y home, 'Tis

2. They hunt no more for the 'pos-sum and the 'coon On the

3. The head must bow and the back will have to bend, Wher-

The fourth system continues the vocal melody and piano accompaniment with lyrics. The lyrics are:

This section continues the chorus with the lyrics: "sing one song for the old Kentucky home, For the old Kentucky home far a - way." It is written for four voices and piano. The vocal parts all sing the same lyrics. The piano accompaniment features a more active melody in the right hand, with eighth and sixteenth notes, and a steady bass line in the left hand. The key signature remains one sharp (F#) and the time signature is common time (C).

Voice

Piano

The first system of music features a voice line and a piano accompaniment. The voice line is a single staff with a treble clef, a key signature of three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat), and a common time signature (C). It contains three measures of whole rests. The piano accompaniment consists of two staves (treble and bass clefs) with a common time signature. The right hand plays a series of chords and moving lines, while the left hand provides a steady bass line.

The second system continues the piano accompaniment from the first system. The voice line remains empty with whole rests. The piano accompaniment continues with similar harmonic and melodic patterns in both hands.

One sweet-ly sol - emn thought Comes to me o'er and o'er;

The third system introduces the vocal melody. The voice line has a treble clef and contains the lyrics: "One sweet-ly sol - emn thought Comes to me o'er and o'er;". The piano accompaniment continues, with the right hand playing chords and the left hand playing a bass line. The system concludes with a triplet of eighth notes in the left hand, numbered 3, 2, 1.
