

In the Spring

My love is the maïd ov all maïdens,
(maid of) (maidens)
Though all mid be comely,
(may)
Her skin 's lik ' the jessamy blossom
(like) (jessamine)
A-spread in the Spring.

Her smile is so sweet as a beäby's
(baby's)
Young smile on his mother,
Her eyes be as bright as the dew-drop
A-shed in the Spring.

O grey-leafy pinks o' the geärden,
(garden)
Now bear her sweet blossoms;
Now deck wi' a rrosebud, O briar,
(with) (rose)
Her head in the Spring.

O light-rollèn wind blow me hither,
(rolling)
The väice ov her talkèn,
(voice of) (talking)
O bring vrom her veet the light doust,
(from) (feet) (dust)
She do tread in the Spring.

O zun, meäke the gil'cups all glitter
(sun, make) (kingcups)
In goold all around her;
(gold)
An' meäke o' the deäisys' white flowers
(And make of) (daisies?)
A bed in the Spring.

O whissle gäy birds, up bezide her,
(whistle gay) (beside)
In drongway, an' woodlands, (pathway, and)
O zing, swingèn lark, now the clouds
(sing, swinging)
Be a-vled in the Spring.
(a-fled)

An' who, you mid ax, be my praïses
(may ask) (praïses)
A-meäkèn so much o',
(making) (of)
An' oh! 'tis the maïd I'm a-hopèn
(maid) (hoping)
To wed in the Spring.

Dedicated to the Members of the Barnes Society

IN THE SPRING

W. BARNES

R. VAUGHAN WILLIAMS

Lento moderato ♩ = 54 ♪ = 162

Voice

Pianoforte

p

My—

love is the maïd ov all maïd-ens, Though all mid be come - ly, Her—(maid of) (maid-ens) (may) skin's lik' the jess - a - my blos - som A - spread in the Spring. Her—

(like) (jess - a - mine)

smile is so sweet as a beä-by's Young smile on his mo - ther,
 (ba - bys)

Her _____ eyes be as bright as the dew-drop A - shed _____ in the Spring. _____ O _____

grey-leaf - y pinks o' the geär-den, Now bear her sweet bloss - oms; Now_

(gar - den,)

deck wi' a rrose-bud, O bri - ar, Her head in the Spring.

(with) (rose)

light-roll - èn wind blow me hith - er, The väice ov her talk - èn,

(roll - ing) (voice of) (talk - ing)

O bring vrom her veet the light doust, She do tread _____ in the

(from) (feet) (dust)

Spring.

pp

zun, meäke the gil'-cups all glit-ter In goold all a-round her; An' (And)

(sun, make) (king-cups) (gold)

meäke o' the deäi-sys' white flow-ers A bed in the Spring. O

(make of) (dai-sies')

whiss-le gäy birds, up be-zide her, In drong-way, an' wood-lands,

(whiss-le gay) (be-side) (path-way and)

O zing, swing-èn lark, now the clouds Be a-vled in the Spring.

(sing, swing-ing) (a-fled)

♩ = ♩.

An' who, you mid
(may)

mf

Poco animato

ax, be my praï - es A - meäk - èn so much o', An'
ask, (prais - es) (mak - ing) (of,) (And)

Allargando

oh! 'tis the maïd I'm a - hop - èn To wed in the (maid) (hop - ing)

colla voce

Tempo I

Spring.

p sub. pp