HEITOR VILLA-LOBOS

The note G forms a pedal point for the entire piece. The G is heard in every measure except at (A). The harmony here is based on the dominant chord in the right hand:

while the left hand plays a series of chromatic passing tones. See how the diatonic left hand thirds of the beginning change to colorful chromatic thirds four measures before the end.

A nota Sol forma o pedal para toda a peça. O Sol é ouvido em todos os compassos exceto no 23º, na letra (A). A harmonia é baseada no acorde da dominante, na mão direita, enquanto a mão esquerda toca uma série de modulações cromáticas. É notável, no princípio, como as terças diatônicas da mão esquerda mudam o colorido das terças cromáticas, nos últimos compassos.

HEITOR VILLA-LOBOS

The key is  $g\sharp$  minor, but the scale is a modal minor (Aeolian) with a whole tone between 7 and 8:

O tom é em sol# menor, sendo a escala modal menor com um tom entre 7 e 8:

This gives the quasi gay left hand melody an olden-time melancholy touch despite the sparkling freshness of the right hand. The harmonic progressions of the last three measures are interesting to note:

Isso dá à mão esquerda, de melodia alegre, um caráter nostálgico, não obstante a cintilante frescura da mão direita. As progressões harmônicas dos últimos 3 compassos são dignas de nota:

The chords are all built on the downward movement of these three notes:
